

NORWICH TOWN

Birds Preparing to Migrate—Mails Late Because of C. V. Wreck—Frost Leaves Flowers Blackened.

Robins are flocking together, preparing to leave for the south. A large flock of chickadees uttering their cries stayed a day or two recently. As they are not here through the summer they doubtless came from the northern regions. B. L. Dulaney, who has a refuge for song birds near Bristol, Tenn., has this to say in a New York paper about woodpeckers and the chestnut blight.

I have come to the conclusion that the disappearance of certain of our trees, notably the chestnut, is due to the neglect to preserve one species of birds, the woodpecker. I understand there are few woodpeckers left in this part of the country, and that the chestnut tree is almost extinct. Owing to this dearth of their enemies the borers on which woodpeckers prey, and other destructive insects have come in force. There are many varieties of the woodpecker each of which takes care of a particular form of tree pest. As for the harm the bird does to a tree that is simply nil. He digs out a hole for one family nest in the spring. When you hear him tapping the tree a other times he has only located a borer and is going after it and he has a way of finding it. I am positive that if we had protected our birds in time we would have saved many of our forest trees.

Frost Effects Blossoms.

Gardens about town were affected by Sunday night's frost. Of a fine bed of dahlias on the Scotland road only one was left standing Monday morning, and near them was a pile of water covered with a sheet of ice. There was frost on Plain Hill, but none on Walpole Hill.

Memorial Mass.

There was a large attendance of relatives and friends present at Sacred Heart church at 8 o'clock Monday morning when an anniversary mass for Edward Glancy was celebrated by Rev. Charles Brennan. Solos were rendered by Miss May Pouch.

Going to North Stonington Meeting.

Several from here are planning to attend the all day sessions Wednesday of the quarterly meeting of eastern Connecticut branch of the W. B. F. M. which will be held at the Congregational church in North Stonington.

Wrecked Delayed Mails.

Because of the wreck on the Central Vermont road the first mail train up came at eight o'clock instead of at five, so that the R. F. D. carriers were delayed an hour and the letter carrier nearly two hours in starting.

Leaves for Atlanta.

After visiting for some weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Barber on Plain Hill Dr. Rawlitzer of Atlanta, Ga., left Monday for New York where he will take the steamer St. Louis for his home.

Talked About Locally.

After spending some time in Westerly Miss Elizabeth Wheeler is again in this vicinity.

The Sunday school of Sacred Heart church resumed sessions Sunday after the summer vacation.

There was a good attendance Sunday afternoon at the Sunday school session held in Scotland Road hall.

The first meeting held since June of the Junior C. E. of the First Congregational church was on Sunday afternoon.

Milo Gardner of Occum and James Towne and Leslie Gardner of South Canterbury were guests Sunday of A. E. Geer of the Scotland road.

This (Tuesday) afternoon there is to be a meeting of the Sophy Weitzel circle of The King's Daughters at the home of Mrs. D. W. Avery on West Town street.

Mrs. Frank Skinner and son Eric Skinner of Peck's Corner returned Saturday after passing the week in Hartford where the boy was for two or three days at the Hartford hospital for special treatment.

UNDER WING OF UNITED STATES

(Continued from Page One.)

the writ continued to safeguard their client should Governor Peck find against Thaw in the extradition hearing to be held at Concord probably on Wednesday.

Jerome will object to the continuance of the writ and insist on an immediate hearing, even though there is a possibility that Thaw may be released from custody. Jerome believes that Thaw's counsel would make no attempt to get their client out of the state under the circumstances and that Thaw would be immediately arrested and brought before the governor as arranged.

Security Against Kidnapping.

Both factions planned tonight to leave Colebrook for Litchfield at six o'clock tomorrow morning. The distance is about forty-four miles and the train, if on time should reach there about 8:30. Thaw tonight was eagerly anticipating the trip to Litchfield. It is the first time with the exception of bankruptcy proceedings at Pittsburgh, that his case has ever been in the federal courts and the sovereign power of Uncle Sam gave him a sense of security against kidnapping. Marshal Note reached Colebrook shortly after three o'clock this afternoon. The writ he bore was directed against Holman Drew, the sheriff of Coos county, or any other custodian of Thaw. But because the sheriff was temporarily absent, having gone to his home in Berlin for the afternoon, the marshal refrained from serving the writ on any deputies and handed it to the sheriff in person on his return here tonight.

Constable Andrews in Trouble.

Thaw spent an uneventful day. Only once did he leave his hotel and that was to get shaved. He heard with interest tonight that John Andrews, the Colebrook constable who arrested Jerome on the charge of gambling of which he was subsequently exonerated, had run afoul of the United States immigration law. Tonight Andrews was held here in the custody of Charles Kelly, Colebrook's chief of police, pending the arrival of George R. Allen, a United States immigration inspector stationed at Island Pond, Vt. Allen telephoned that he had a warrant for the arrest of Andrews, charging him with assisting a pauper woman to enter this country in violation of the immigration laws.

Jerome's Detective Caused Arrest.

Andrews tonight said that he was a liveryman, a native of New Hampshire, although he had lived in Colebrook for nearly twenty years, and knew nothing of the charge against him.

John Lanyon, a private detective, who has been acting as Jerome's aid, caused Andrews to be detained. He had talked with Inspector Allen yesterday, he said, mentioning casually that Andrews was the man who arrested Jerome in Colebrook.

"Why, I have a warrant for that man on another charge," the inspector replied, according to Lanyon. "If he comes around here hold him and notify me."

"Spite Work," Says Thaw.

Jerome said tonight that he had heard on the day of his arrest at Colebrook that Andrews, his captor, was wanted in the United States for alleged violation of the immigration laws but that he (Jerome) had had no part in the arrest today. Thaw, indignant, characterized the whole affair as a piece of spite work.

OBITUARY.

Howard Chase Taber.

The many friends of Howard Chase Taber of Providence, formerly of Norwich, will regret to learn of his death, which took place in Providence Saturday morning at 2 o'clock. He was operated upon for appendicitis and did not rally.

Mr. Taber graduated from the Broadway grammar school in the class of 1903, and then his family moved to Providence and he graduated from the high school there and was to enter Brown university this fall. He was a member of the Central Baptist church.

Mr. Taber is survived by his mother, Mrs. Chase Howard Taber, of Providence, and two sisters, Hope A. and Elizabeth Taber. He also leaves grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sawyer, of this city.

Mr. Taber possessed fine characteristics, was studious and a model son and brother. His teachers and all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance speak of him in terms of endearment.

Groton Students at Norwich.

Groton young people who are attending the Norwich Free Academy are Miss Matilda Allen, Miss Pauline Christie, Miss Louise Avery, Adrien Marquardt, Andrew Atha, Louis Bailey and William Christie.

FUNERAL.

Noyes E. Ayers.

The funeral of Noyes E. Ayers was held Sunday afternoon from Gager's funeral parlors on Franklin street at 1:30. Rev. Frank Palmer officiated and George Turner rendered Face to Face and Nearer, My God, to Thee. There were many beautiful floral remembrances, among which was a pillow marked husband. The bearers were John Looby, John Palmer, William Scribner, Ansel Lamb, George Tourge and Charles Combes, and burial was in the family plot in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Ayers died on Thursday, Sept. 11. He was the son of Chester and Florida Champlin Ayres and was born in Franklin 69 years ago. Besides his wife he leaves two daughters and brothers and sisters.

WEDDING.

Alofsin—Rubin.

Ellis Alofsin, a well known merchant on West Main street, and Mrs. Sophie Rubin, a widow of No. 13 Cove street, were united in marriage Sunday evening by Rabbi Max Stamm.

Both are natives of Russia. Mr. Alofsin has conducted a successful meat business on West Main street for a long period.

There are now 30,000 union barbers.

"Just Say" HORLICK'S

It Means Original and Genuine Malted Milk

The Food-drink for All Ages. More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

PATRICIAN SHOES

New Fall Styles, Patent Leather, Gun Metal, and Russian Calf. A woman's Shoe that's right.

FRANK A. BILL, 104 Main St.

The Auditorium Hotel

BUSINESS MEN'S LUNCH

from 12 until 2

SPECIAL FOR TODAY

Roast Sirloin of Beef

with Pan Gravy

Price 40c

WHEN you want to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Boston Store

Festival of Autumn Fashions

We also announce the Opening Exhibition

of

Women's and Misses' Apparel

for the Fall and Winter Season 1913-14

A STRIKING DISPLAY

of the newest and most charming styles which will be offered this season—clever adaptations of the best foreign designs together with the smartest models originated by American designers.

All of the latest modes are most generously represented in this wonderful exhibition.

Your presence is cordially requested.

Commences Today and continues Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

The Reid & Hughes Co

For Skin Troubles

use Glenn's Sulphur Soap. No other toilet soap is as efficient in clearing the complexion of blemishes—sallow, oily or itchy skin, blackheads, pimples, and hives. It purifies and heals.

The most convenient, inexpensive skin remedy. A delightful toilet and bath soap. At all Druggists.

Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, Brown or Black, 50c